

F-1 or J-1 Student Program Extension Academic Advisor's Recommendation Form

To be completed by the student (please print clearly):

If you are unable to complete your present degree by the date indicated on your F document (I-20) or J document (IAP-66 or DS2019), you may apply for an extension within the semester in which that document expires. You are eligible if you have been maintaining your nonimmigrant status, if you have been making normal progress toward completion of your degree, and if academic dismissal or suspension has not delayed your completion. Have your academic advisor or major professor complete the bottom portion of this form. Then, submit this form to ISS along with a completed student request form, proof of funding, current I-20 or J document, and passport.
